

Perfect Replacement For Fleet Broad Band (FBB)

Iridium Certus Redefining Connectivity at Sea

Iridium Certus brings you high quality broadband voice and data capabilities for ships anywhere in the world.

Iridium Certus offers superior connectivity for maritime customers whether used as a standalone service or as a companion to VSAT services. It runs on a sophisticated network with coverage in the extreme latitude and throughout the polar regions, providing a one-stop shop for true global connectivity.

- 66 Active Satellites
 - 6 orbital planes with 11 satellites each
 - Plus 9 in-orbit spares
 - Plus 6 ground spares
- Low-Earth Orbit (LEO)
 - Enables reliable communications anywhere in the world
- L-band System
 - Allows for transmissions even in adverse weather conditions
- Satellite Crosslinks
 - Creates low-latency, resilient, high-quality connections

Iridium Certus runs on high-speed L-Band. L-Band is the lowest frequency commonly available for maritime satellite communications, meaning that the Iridium signal can penetrate clouds, fog, and rain better than higher frequency Ka- and Ku- band signals.

Designed and built by world-class manufacturers with no moving parts, Iridium Certus maritime terminal are reliable and low maintenance. The small form-factor and lightweight equipment ensures ease of install and a streamlined upgrade path from existing service.

Customer can enjoy three high-definition voice lines, high-speed IP data and safety services in one robust marine-grade terminal.
